

MEDIA ADVISORY:
SCCCI's response to ministerial statement on continued support for workers and jobs

In response to the ministerial statement on continued support for workers and jobs, SCCCI President Roland Ng said, "SCCCI applauds the Government effort in extending an additional $8 billion to continue providing targeted support for businesses in the hardest hit sectors as well as protecting jobs and livelihood of Singaporeans. SCCCI will continue to build on the foundation of a strong tripartite partnerships and align our efforts with government policies when assisting the Trade Associations and our members to accelerate their pace of transformation and emerge stronger. In addition, we will also leverage on the business network of our representative offices in China to help Singapore enterprises venture into new markets and seize growth opportunities in a post-COVID new normal."

About Singapore Chinese Chamber of Commerce & Industry

Established in 1906, the Singapore Chinese Chamber of Commerce & Industry (SCCCI) is an internationally renowned business organisation and the apex body of the Chinese business community in Singapore. It is the founder of the biennial World Chinese Entrepreneurs Convention, a global business convention. It plays a key and pro-active role in representing the interests of the local business community. In its continued drive for service excellence, the SCCCI has become the first business chamber in the region to be awarded ISO 9001 certification since 1995. In 2018, the Chamber successfully upgraded its ISO certification to ISO 9001:2015.

The SCCCI has a membership network comprising 5,000 corporate members and has more than 160 trade association members, representing over 40,000 companies including large financial and business organisations, multinational corporations, government-linked companies, and small and medium enterprises from a wide spectrum of trades and industries. These members together provide vast resources and opportunities which enable the SCCCI to develop an influential global Chinese business network for business, education, culture and community development. In return, they share a strong sense of pride and identity together and benefit immensely from the SCCCI's membership services, facilities and activities.
