

MEDIA ADVISORY:

SCCCI donated 95,000 mandarin oranges to foreign workers

Lunar New Year is filled with warmth of the society, sharing the joy of the festive. Singapore Chinese Chamber of Commerce & Industry (SCCCI) supports Ministry of Manpower's (MOM) call, donated 95,000 mandarin oranges to foreign workers residing in 18 dormitories. The SCCCI took this opportunity to express sincere gratitude to foreign workers for their contribution to Singapore.

Minister for Manpower Mrs Josephine Teo, Second Minister for Manpower Dr Tan See Leng, were accompanied by SCCCI President Mr Roland Ng and SCCCI council member Mr Tay Khiam Back during the distribution of mandarin oranges on 14 February 2021.

SCCCI President Roland Ng said, "The foreign workers community has contributed to Singapore's development. They also play vital roles in post-COVID economic recovery. Foreign workers are an important component of Singapore society, we truly appreciate their hard work and contribution in economic development of Singapore. By donating mandarin oranges during this festive season, it shows our gesture of appreciation to the foreign workers. At the same time, it reflects the Chinese Entrepreneurial Spirit of giving back to society. We believe that by uniting the force of various communities, we will be able to forge a more inclusive and prosperous society."

About Singapore Chinese Chamber of Commerce & Industry

Established in 1906, the Singapore Chinese Chamber of Commerce & Industry (SCCCI) is an internationally renowned business organisation and the apex body of the Chinese business community in Singapore. It is the founder of the biennial World Chinese Entrepreneurs Convention, a global business convention. It plays a key and pro-active role in representing the interests of the local business community.

The SCCC has a membership network comprising 5,000 corporate members and has more than 160 trade association members, representing over 40,000 companies including large financial and business organisations, multinational corporations, government-linked companies, and small and medium enterprises from a wide spectrum of trades and industries. These members together provide vast resources and opportunities which enable the SCCC to develop an influential global Chinese business network for business, education, culture and community development. In return, they share a strong sense of pride and identity together and benefit immensely from the SCCC's membership services, facilities and activities.
