

MEDIA ADVISORY:
SCCCI's response in relation to charge faced by
Mr Eric Khua Kian Keong, Council Member

The Singapore Chinese Chamber of Commerce & Industry (SCCCI, the Chamber) takes a serious view of its members' conduct and behaviour so that the good reputation and interests of the Chamber are upheld.

We understand that SCCCI Council Member Mr. Eric Khua Kian Keong has been charged for allegedly pushing Mr. Tan Tock Han, the former chairman of KTL Global down some stairs.

The Chamber has formed a Disciplinary Committee to look into the allegations. Mr. Eric Khua Kian Keong has been temporarily suspended from his position as SCCCI Council Member pending investigation and the outcome of the criminal proceeding.

About Singapore Chinese Chamber of Commerce & Industry

Established in 1906, the Singapore Chinese Chamber of Commerce & Industry (SCCCI) is an internationally renowned business organisation and the apex body of the Chinese business community in Singapore. It is the founder of the biennial World Chinese Entrepreneurs Convention, a global business convention. It plays a key and pro-active role in representing the interests of the local business community.

The SCCCI has a membership network comprising 5,000 corporate members and has more than 160 trade association members, representing over 40,000 companies including large financial and business organisations, multinational corporations, government-linked companies, and small and medium enterprises from a wide spectrum of trades and industries. These members together provide vast resources and opportunities which enable the SCCCI to develop an influential global Chinese business network for business, education, culture and community development. In return, they share a strong sense of pride and identity together and benefit immensely from the SCCCI's membership services, facilities and activities.
