

MEDIA ADVISORY:
SCCCI's response to Cabinet reshuffle

In response to the Cabinet reshuffle, the Singapore Chinese Chamber of Commerce & Industry (SCCCI) is supportive of the latest Cabinet reshuffle announced this afternoon. SCCCI is confident that the new Cabinet will pave the way for a bright future under the leadership of Prime Minister Lee Hsien Loong.

Although the COVID-19 pandemic situation has rebounded to varying degrees around the world, Singapore has a well-developed strategy in managing the pandemic and is fully capable of managing the crisis. The Cabinet reshuffle will allow each Cabinet member to take on a diverse range of portfolios, further strengthen their capabilities, and continue to coordinate the resources across the ministries; building on the foundations of their predecessors, thus helping Singapore emerge stronger in the post-COVID world.

About Singapore Chinese Chamber of Commerce & Industry

Established in 1906, the Singapore Chinese Chamber of Commerce & Industry (SCCCI) is an internationally renowned business organisation and the apex body of the Chinese business community in Singapore. It is the founder of the biennial World Chinese Entrepreneurs Convention, a global business convention. It plays a key and pro-active role in representing the interests of the local business community.

The SCCCI has a membership network comprising 5,000 corporate members and has more than 160 trade association members, representing over 40,000 companies including large financial and business organisations, multinational corporations, government-linked companies, and small and medium enterprises from a wide spectrum of trades and industries. These members together provide vast resources and opportunities which enable the SCCCI to develop an influential global Chinese business network for business, education, culture and community development. In return, they share a strong sense of pride and identity together and benefit immensely from the SCCCI's membership services, facilities and activities.
