

Photo Captions

During the dialogue with 70 trade association representatives, MOS Teo encouraged companies committed to transforming and growing, to tap on the Lead Enterprise Development (LED) scheme for manpower support during the transition period.

MOS Teo Ser Luck (fourth from right) and SCCC President Thomas Chua (fourth from left) together with the pioneer batch of Trade Association Management Course's graduates. The Trade Association Management Course aims to build up the capability of trade associations' secretariat, and to become more effective in leading their industry forward.