RESIGNATION OF SCCCI SECRETARY-GENERAL

The Singapore Chinese Chamber of Commerce & Industry (SCCCI) wishes to announce that Mr Lu Cheng Yang has resigned as the Secretary-General of SCCCI to pursue other career opportunities. He will relinquish his role on 30 November 2022 after close to 5 years of competent service.

Under Mr Lu's leadership, he has helped to strengthen the Chamber's capabilities in government advocacy, engagement with local trade associations, capacity building of trade associations, and internationalization initiatives in China. Amid the challenging COVID-19 pandemic period, his dedicated commitment and efforts have enabled the Chamber to successfully implement several key initiatives and activities that benefited local SMEs and the business community.

SCCCI would like to express its sincere appreciation to Cheng Yang for all his contributions during his tenure as its Secretary-General. Separately, the Chamber has appointed Mr Leong Teng Chau as the Deputy Secretary-General to assist in covering Chamber's affairs.

About Singapore Chinese Chamber of Commerce & Industry

Established in 1906, the Singapore Chinese Chamber of Commerce & Industry (SCCCI) is an internationally renowned business organisation and the apex body of the Chinese business community in Singapore. It is the founder of the biennial World Chinese Entrepreneurs Convention, a global business convention. It plays a key and pro-active role in representing the interests of the local business community.

The SCCCI has a membership network comprising 5,000 corporate members and has more than 160 trade association members, representing over 40,000 companies including large financial and business organisations, multinational corporations, government-linked companies, and small and medium enterprises from a wide spectrum of trades and industries. These members together provide vast resources and opportunities which enable the SCCCI to develop an influential global Chinese business network for business, education, culture and community development. In return, they share a strong sense of pride and identity together and benefit immensely from the SCCCI's membership services, facilities and activities.
